The Herald has been given a quiet tip that a big proposition is brewing for this good old town. Just now the matter is not in position to be made public, but if the deal goes through at Elkhart Lake, and today Misses

Mattie Cad and Flossie Gardner and Miss Edna May Dilley went down to join them for a day in the woods.

A letter from Mr. O. J. Dungey from Austin says his mother is getting along favorably, after undergoing an operation at a sanitarium there. It was reported here yesterday that the lady was dying, and she was in a critical condition at the time.

Miss Deuman went to Huntsville today, for a two days' visit. This popular young Palestine teacher has been selected to teach at the coming summer normal at Sam Houston Institute at Huntsville, and she goes down to look the situation over, confer with others, etc. This selection is well bestowed, and a splendid compliment to this bright little lady.

FOR TAX ASSESSOR.

O. B. Rogers Asks Voters to Consider His Candidacy.

In the announcement column of the Herald will be found the name of Mr. O. B. Rogers, who wants to be elected tax assessor of the county. Mr. Rogers is a well known young man of the county, knows the people of the county, is familiar with land values, and is in every way qualified to fill the office to the satisfaction of the public. He asks his friends and all voters to investigate his record and give him their support and influence.
